WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30

Speaker Cannon seems to be undergoing the experience of being revised by his friends.

After Mr. Roosevelt gets on the Outlook, the Ananias Club will doubtless have an editorial department.

While Mr. Roosevelt is out hunting he will rub in the Congo district, where much of the stuff grows.

The tariff-revision committee has not yet asked any housewives to bring their account books for the past few years to the tariff hearing.

While Mr. Roosevelt is in Africa we wish he would find out for sure whether a jack rabbit can kill a bull moose, report the fact and put a stop to this nature faking business.

Where, oh, where are the 25 cent toys of our boyhood and girlhood, which gave us so much joy? They seem now to have gotten up into the dollar, two-dollar and five-dollar row.

With full knowledge of the fact that we are committing lese majeste, we tremulously record our opinion that Mr. Roosevelt is the most conspicuous figure in his own Ananias Club.

We wonder if Mr. Taft, as President, will be able to call the turn on vice, business immorality and general bad citizenship in so many and varied terms as has his honored predecessor.

THE OPPORTUNITY IS HERE.

The Democrats of Ohio county have the best chance to win at the next fall election that they have had in a number of years. It is a palpable fact that the ticket nominated as the late Republican primary and the methods used to do it, are not at all satisfactory to the majority of the members of that party nor the voters in general. The money and liquor used to debauch that election are as a stenoch in the nostrils of all self-respecting voters. They see to what a stage of pitiful rivalry the alleged leaders of this party have come to in this county.

When such a crisis arrives—as it has arrived—there is but one thing to do, and that is to seek for and obtain a new order of things in a changed officialdom. The old party that has of late years held sway in this county has grown arrogant and domineering. The men who profess to have its destiny in their hands seem to think that all they have to do is to give out the word and the offices are theirs. They brook no interference, no opposition. What they cannot get by one means, they will try for in another—fair or foul. This is a dangerous and a disgraceful state of affairs. It is a condition which people will not long submit to.

The remedy lies in a complete overthrow of the party or the powers which indulge in such practices. The time is ripe and the people are ready. If the Democracy of Ohio county will put forth a strong, clean ticket of acceptable men—men of known ability and integrity—it will win. There can be little doubt about this. Re-

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery"—was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famous "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, doctors and writers on Internal Medicine who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. E. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

publicans of life-long standing admit it. Many of them who have never done so before, are willing and ready to vote the Democratic ticket next year if its personnel is made up of men of the aforementioned caliber. Of course there are different personal opinions as to who would be the proper men to compose such a ticket, but there should be a unison of sentiment. The Independent and the Republican voters should be taken into consideration. Without their votes the Democracy of the county, of itself—from a numerical standpoint—could hardly hope to win. We need recruits; we need help. This necessary adjunct is available if we only manage affairs rightly.

The key to the situation lies in harmony in party ranks. We can afford to put aside personal preferences, if necessary, in order that the party and the ticket may win. This is the logical, the sensible conclusion. The opportunity is ours. The situation presents itself. The Democrats of Ohio county of every shade of personal opinion are invited to a thoughtful consideration of the matter.

A Call.

To the trustees of Educational Division No. 5, to meet at Green Briar schoolhouse, Jan. 2, 1909, to attend to some important business.

Richard Plummer, Ch'm'n.

Gift of a Kentuckian.

Midway, Ky., Dec. 24.—Capt. James T. Williams has just shipped from his home near this city a fine twenty-nine pound turkey to William Jennings Bryan at Lincoln, Neb., as a gift for his Christmas dinner. Capt. Williams is an ardent admirer of Mr. Bryan and each year at this time remembers the noted Nebraskan with one of the best birds from his beautiful Woodford county farm.

JONES' STATION.

Dec. 24.—Our steam mills are busy sawing lumber and grinding corn for the town and community. Also the broom factory of Sherman Risher has commenced operation. He has a large amount of broom corn to manufacture into brooms.

Mr. S. A. Graves, who has been running his brother's axlehandle mill at Paragould, Ark., since Sept. 5th, will return to his home here Jan. 2. Since he has been gone his mill here has been run by Henry Poole.

Sunday, the 20th, being the regular meeting day of East Fork Baptist church located here, the funeral sermon of the little son of Charles Craig was preached by Rev. W. Richards.

About 75 loads of tobacco have been delivered at Fordsville from here at satisfactory prices to all parties.

Tuesday the 22nd was the last day of our district school and Prof. J. D. Falls, our teacher, used about one-half of the time in examining the advancement of his pupils during the time he has had charge of the school.

Edwin Forbes, in the gray uniform of a United States Cadet officer of the time when Gen. Scott was the commandant of the National Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., addressed the pupils from 10 o'clock a. m. to 12 m. Col. Forbes said that he had made a careful investigation of the ancestors of the pupils of this school and what of them that was not the descendants of Revolutionary ancestry were the descendants of the Indian fighters of Daniel Boone, Col. Wm. Hardin and other pioneer leaders during the Indian hostility and that he didn't believe there was another school of the size of this school that possessed the patriotic ancestry that the pupils of this school did and it was just to them that they should know of the terrible sufferings and hardships that the price of liberty had been bought for them. Col. Forbes closed his remarks by a short but spirited address, after which he buckled on his sword and said that all would now retire to the play ground, where he would drill them so that if called upon they would have some instructions about marching in a public parade. At the play ground the scholars were placed in column, the tallest at the head of the line. After marching and counter-marching them for some time he dismissed them, after advising them of future schools to take some interest in parade drills, as they may have use for them on very sad occasions.

Prof. Falls opened the evening session of the school with a few lessons of the highest branches taught by him and delivered his farewell address, after a 20 pound treat of candy to them.

Since writing the above I have been requested by the trustees to present to Prof. Falls their sincere thanks for the efficient manner he has conducted their district school.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"He has a motor car tongue." "What do you mean?" "Oh, he's always running other people down!"—Pick-Me-Up

Weak Throat—Weak Lungs

Cold after cold; cough after cough! Troubled with this taking-cold habit? Better break it up. We have great confidence in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this work. No medicine like it for weak throats and weak lungs. Ask your doctor for his opinion. He knows all about it. His approval is valuable. Follow his advice at all times. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Always keep a good laxative in the house. Take a dose when your cold first comes on. What is the best laxative for this? Ayer's Pills. Ask your doctor his opinion. Let him decide.

FIERCE BATTLE

In the Mountains—U. S. Marshals and Miners Clash Christmas Day.

Danville, Ky., Dec. 25.—Deputy United States Marshal John Mullins, of Richmond, Ky., and Richard Ross, a miner, living at Stearns, were instantly killed in a battle between United States Marshals and miners at Stearns, in White county, sixty-six miles south of here, this morning.

The McFerran Hotel, in which the miners were barricaded, was burned, presumably to smoke the miners out. It is thought that four or five miners were burned to death in the hotel building. In the battle several miners were wounded. United States Marshals Tate and Ryan, of Somerset, were wounded, but it is thought that their wounds are not of a serious nature.

The trouble came about as the result of an attempt on the part of union miners to organize the nonunion miners at Stearns, numbering over 300. The Stearns Coal Company, through its attorneys, E. L. Stephens and J. N. Sharpe, of Williamsburg, instituted suit in the United States District Court at Covington recently against J. O. Tunstall and thirty-one others, in which the company sought to enjoin the union men from interfering with the operations of the plaintiff's mines in White county. Tunstall is the district organizer of the United Mine Workers of America.

It was charged that the parties were attempting to bring on a strike. Numerous threats are said to have been made. Judge A. M. J. Cochran caused a temporary restraining order to be issued. Whitley is said to have the largest output of coal of any county in the State. It is alleged that the strike promoters refused to obey the restraining order granted by Judge Cochran and proceeded with the work of attempting to effect an organization of the miners.

Coopers Refused Bond.

Katherine—And did he complain last night?

Eva—No, the goose was too busy popping himself.—Chicago News.

At the Opera.

He—It really isn't necessary to understand the words. Don't they portray every emotion clearly?

She (enthusiastically)—Yes, indeed! But—don't you wonder whether he's making love to her now or saying something horrid?—Kansas City Times.

Flattering Comparison.

"Isn't he a cute little darling?" said the fond mother, proudly exhibiting the cherub.

"Yes," answered her bachelor brother. "He's funnier than one of these mechanical toys. You don't have to wind him up."—Boston Post.

As Long as a Week.

"He's so particular and so careful about himself and his clothes. Why, he can wear a collar a whole week long!"

"Gee whiz! What an awfully long neck he must have!"—Pittsburg Post.

The Doctor's Expectations.

"I'm glad to find you so much better, old man. Does the doctor expect you to be out soon?"

"I think he expects me to be out the amount of his bill. He sent it in today."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Dangerous Operation.

As we close business for the year 1908 and enter on the year 1909, we want to thank our many customers for their liberal patronage during the year just ended. It has been our desire always to give our customers full 100 cents' worth of Merchandise for every $1 spent with us. In this we are confident we have succeeded.

We have reason to be grateful and in a thankful mood, as our business shows a steady gain from the beginning to the present. Although we have just gone through with one of the worst panics of all panics, our business shows a marked increase over any previous year. This certainly makes us feel proud, and now as we enter the new year, we again want to thank our many customers for their liberal patronage and ask a continuance of same throughout the year 1909.
